PREFACE.

IN submitting "Picturesque Shelbyville" to the public, it is with some degree of pride, as originally it was the intention of the compiler to publish only a souvenir of the First German Presbyterian Church on the occasion of its thirty-fifth Jubilee, for the benefit of our magnificent edifice now under construction; but, owing to the persistent demands of many of the city's enterprising people, it was found impossible to thus limit its pages, hence it was changed to a souvenir of the entire city and to include therein matters of general public interest.

We take this opportunity of publicly thanking the manufacturers and business people, generally, and especially attorney Charles H. Tindall, for their assistance, thus enabling us to publish this book, which involved great expense.

As the enterprise has been officially indorsed by the City Council, who have also assisted us in many ways, We sincerely hope that it may, in the end, revert to the interest and welfare of our beautiful city

Very truly,

REV. WM. J. H. BOETCKER.

SHELBYVILLE,

THE county seat of Shelby County, Indiana, situated near the center of the Hoosier State, twenty-seven miles southeast of Indianapolis, and only nineteen miles from the center of population of the United States, is one of the most beautiful and important cities of its size to be found anywhere. Containing a population of 8,500 people, and being centrally located in one of the richest agricultural counties and districts of the State, and by reason of its large manufacturing interests and many natural advantages, Shelbyville occupies an enviable position among its neighboring cities as one of the leading commercial marts of the country.

It is traversed by two railroads, the main line of the Big Four from Cincinnati to Indianapolis, and a branch of the Pennsylvania lines, extending from Columbus to Cambridge City, and connecting with the main lines at those places, and is now the present terminus of the Indianapolis, Shelbyville & Southeastern Traction Company, whose electric cars enter and depart from this city every hour during the day. The survey is now being made and the plans formulated for the extension of this line to Batesville, and it is probable that same will be completed within another year. Among the possibilities of electrical transportation, too, is the final construction of the proposed line from Greenwood to this city, the preliminary work and the roadbed of which has been completed during the past summer for a distance of several miles, when the same was temporarily abandoned.

The chief manufacturing industry, and that to which every citizen of this thriving populace can point with pride, is that of furniture, in which, with its eleven large factories, each having a separate and distinct line for the trade, surpasses every city in the world of like population, and is frequently alluded to as the "Furniture City of the Middle West." The originality and beauty of design and elegance of finish has placed the highest standard of merit upon the furniture manufactured here when in direct competition with that of other factories of the country. There are also two mirror works, one wrench and steel-range factory, two machine shops, and also five large elevators, where the highest cash price is always paid for the products of the farm.

It is here that the famous Shelbyville Lithia Water is found, fast becoming used and favorably known throughout the entire country for its remarkable curative powers, and also in near proximity to the well-equipped bath house of the Lithia Water Company, a private hospital complete in all its appointments.

To the close observer, no better standard can be used in judging the stability of citizenship than that of its surrounding moralizing influences, and in which Shelbyville stands without an equal in the State, in proportion to its size, in the large and magnificent temples of worship and the common school system within her domain. Her churches, save three now under construction, are all new, modern and commodious, four of which were rebuilt within the past year. There are six magnificent school buildings, including the high school, all modern and complete and conveniently situated in the different portions of the city, with an efficient corps of teachers in each; and through the benefaction of Andrew Carnegie, a most beautiful Public Library building, constructed of stone, costing $20,000, now almost ready for dedication to the name of its liberal benefactor. Water-works and electric light plant under private corporate control furnish to the city and her people water and light at moderate prices.

As a result of successful competition in the system of telephones, there are now two opposing companies, the Bell and the Independent, each having a large number of subscribers and furnishing first-class service at a minimum price, with free service to and from the city on the lines extending throughout the entire county. Free mail delivery throughout the entire city and a large number of rural routes leading therefrom, serve daily a large and enlightened population within the county.

In her social life, Shelbyville is nowhere to be out-classed. The well appointed Club House, "The Assembly," is known throughout the State, while there are also less noted clubs and assemblages of almost every variety and name, from that of the "Bachelors' Society" to the "Maiden's Wash Day Club," while in Secret, Fraternal and Beneficiary Societies, the city is equally well represented.

Visitors of the city look with admiration upon her broad streets and avenues, all well shaded, and the beautiful and magnificent homes with their tastefully kept lawns. Perhaps in no other city in the State of equal size can be found more homes owned by their present occupants and wage-earners than here. This is made possible from a variety of causes: The steady operation of our factories, all paying good wages; cheap fuel from the two natural gas companies; an extremely low rate of taxation in the city, the same being but 66 cents the past year; and the benefit derived from a large number of Building and Loan Associations where the weekly earnings of the toilers are saved and long-time loans are made at a low rate of interest.

The spirit of public and private enterprise is manifest here, too, and the city is steadily becoming more metropolitan. The site is now purchased and the plans completed for a new and commodious City Hall, costing $30,000, and containing an auditorium with a seating capacity of 2,750 people; also under consideration is a complete public sewerage system and public ownership of the water-works and electric light plant; and there are three daily and weekly newspapers published here, each having an extensive circulation, which furnish a full medium of diversified information; three well capitalized banks that have withstood the era of panics as well as prosperity; while our merchants, from sharp competition in all the avenues of trade are active, progressive and alert, as is evidenced from the large and select lines of merchandise contained in their busy but well kept stores.

To the investor, wage-earner, manufacturer or those desiring a home in a healthful locality where exceptional advantages exist, Shelbyville stands worthy of the highest consideration.

FIRST GERMAN PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH.

Situated Corner Broadway, Pike and Jackson Streets.

Rev. and Mrs. Wm. J. H. Boetcker, nec Albrecht.

THE present Pastor, the Rev. Wm. J. H. BOETCKER, was born July 17, 1873, in Altona (Elbe), Germany. He received his early education in the Royal Christianeum (Gymnasium) in Altona. In the year 1891 he came to America and continued his studies at the Chicago Theological Seminary, and graduated June 16, 1897, from the "German Theological School, of Newark, N. J.," situated at Bloomfield, N. J.

On September 16th he passed the Licensure Examination before the South Bergen Classis and became Licentiate. On October 3d, 1897, he was elected and November 19th regularly called by the Consistory of the newly organized GERMAN-AMERICAN REFORMED CHURCH to be the pastor of the congregation. After passing a final examination at a special meeting of the South Long Island Classis, on November 15th, the Rev. Wm. J. H. Boetcker was regularly ordained as minister of the Gospel, and installed as Pastor of the German-American Reformed Church, of Brooklyn, December 6th, 1897, of which he had charge until December, 1901, when he was compelled, on account of failing health, from overwork, to look for a smaller field. He accepted the call of the First German Presbyterian Church, of Shelbyville, Indiana, of which he took charge on December 27, 1901.

REV. Herman H. Hulten was born October 7, 1874, at Hannibal, Missouri. Attended public school at Hannibal, graduating in the spring of '94. Entered William Jewell College in the fall of '94, and took collegiate degrees in the spring of '97. Immediately after college graduation, he was called to the pastorate of the First Baptist Church, at Keytesville, Missouri. Served this church one year and was called to pastorate of the First Baptist Church, at Salisbury, Missouri. After one year's service here, he entered the Southern Baptist Theological Seminary, at Louisville, Kentucky, where he took a course in Theology. While attending school at Louisville, he served as pastor for the First Baptist Church, at Jeffersonville, Indiana. Upon the completion of his course at Louisville, he was called to Shelbyville, Indiana, his present field.

On December 25, 1901, Rev. Hulten was married to Miss Ollie S. Black, of Kansas City, Missouri.

FIRST CHRISTIAN CHURCH.

THE Christian Church, of Shelbyville, was organized at the home of Ovid Butler, in 1834. For a time the congregation met at the homes of its members; then the meeting place was changed to a second-story room at the corner of Washington street and Public Square; from here it was moved to the old Shelby County Court House, that stood in the Public Square. In 1867 a frame building was erected at the corner of Franklin and Pike streets at a cost of $2,500. In 1886 this building was remodeled and enlarged. The present beautiful and commodious building was erected in 1901, and dedicated March 2, 1902, at a total cost of something over $20,000.00

Rev. and Mrs. E. F. Mahan.

Elder Finley Mahan was born in Orange county, Indiana, August 10, 1870. He is a graduate of the Orleans, Indiana, High school and of the Indiana State University, of Bloomington. His special preparation for the ministry was made in the Theological department of Kentucky University and at Yale Divinity School, New Haven, Connecticut. He has had pastorates in Carbondale, Illinois, and Salem, Indiana. His work in Shelbyville began October 1, 1899. He was married to Miss Jessie Means, of this city, June 10, 1902.

WEST STREET METHODIST EPISCOPAL CHURCH.

HISTORY OF WEST STREET M. E. CHURCH.

In the beginning of this organization it was thought to build a room for Sunday School purposes for the benefit of the Southern and Western part of Shelbyville, but Isom Wray coming to its aid very liberally, with the help of Joshua Emus and E. P. Jewitt, the present building was erected in 1891. M. A. Farr was the first pastor, serving until 1896. The church grew from a small membership, under his pastorate, to more than two hundred. Bro. R. H. Moore, Rob Zaring and W. F. Smith have served the church up to the present time, in which it has grown beyond all expectations, reaching this present year 450 members, with a Sunday School second in the county. The church is in a very prosperous condition, and will soon be one of the best appointments in the Indiana Conference.

W. F. SMITH.

REV. W. F. SMITH, A. B., M. A.,

was born in Milroy, Indiana, October 19, 1872; was educated in the Milroy Public and High Schools. In the fall of 1890 he entered Moore's Hill College, where he remained for two years, spending the year of 1893 in DePauw University. He entered the Ministry of the Southeast Indiana Conference in 1894, which met in Shelbyville that year. In 1899 he graduated from Moore's Hill College with the degree of A. B.; three years later taking the Master's degree from the same school. He was married to Katherine Porrer, of Milroy, in 1894. Since that time he has served Delaware, Port Fulton, North Vernon, and is in his second year at his present charge, where he is meeting with unbounded success.

The Benevolent Protective Order Elks is purely a social and charitable organization, and was organized in New York City in 1867. It dispenses charity without ostentation, and has, perhaps, expended more like charity to the public than any secret order in the world. Shelbyville Lodge No. 457 was organized December 26, 1895, and now has more than a hundred members, who are among Shelbyville's most influential citizens. Its social gatherings have been among the best ever given in this city.

CHILLON LODGE No. 129, K. of P.

CHILLON Lodge No. 129, Knights of Pythias, was instituted September 23, 1885, with the following persons as charter members: J. N. Lucas, Edward H. Chadwick, Robert W. Harrison, Milton R. Senour, Christian Steinhauser, Joseph H. Akers, Peter C. Akers, Charles P. Hale, Robert B. Hale, Lester Clark, David L. Wilson, David B. Wilson, John N. Whitehead, Richard D. Flaitz, F. W. Mohr, Samuel D. Favorite, Taylor Winterrowd, John J. Wingate, Henry Friday, George H. Dunn, John M. Brown and K. M. Hord. The lodge at the present time has 333 members in good standing. The dues are $6.00 per member, each year and is paid quarterly. The lodge pays $4.00 per week for sick benefits, and $1.00 multiplied by the number of members in good standing as a death benefit.

The following brothers have served as Chancellor Commanders of Chillon Lodge, in the order named: P. C. Akers, C. P. Hale, J. N. Lucas, D. L. Wilson, Taylor Winterrowd, M. R. Senour, E. H. Chadwick, R. W. Harrison, John Reiver, C. A. Tindall, H. L. Clark, G. W. Hagans, J. G. King, F. R. Hale, G. W. F. Kirk, Frank Bass, Lester Clark, Edward Weakley, C. F. King, C. A. White, L. B. Caruthers, R. F. Bogar, I. O. Mann, R. W. Buxton, H. C. Moore, Elmer Bassett, O. D. Alsman, Joseph Chez, Allen P. Green, T. D. Wilson, James Turner and C. J. Pettit.

Chillon Lodge has the honor of seeing one of their members in the position of Grand Chancellor of the Grand Domain of Indiana; Doctor Charles A. Tindall, having filled all the stations in the Grand Lodge was chosen Grand Chancellor at its last session, October 7, 1902.

In December, 1899, a movement was started by the members to get a home of their own, and their present handsome new home shows how successful their efforts have been. The plan pursued by the lodge was to organize an association known as "Chillon Castle Hall Association," and sell to the members shares of stock. The Association experienced no difficulty in securing sufficient money to buy ground and erect the building which was completed and ready for occupancy by February, 1901. The Association is managed by a board of directors, as follows: Joseph H. Akers, President; A. J. Thurston, Vice-President; G. W. F. Kirk, Treasurer; R. W. Buxton, Secretary; R. W. Harrison, John M. Gray, C. A. Tindall, E. H. Chadwick, Lester Clark and O. D. Alsman. The yearly rental of the building amounts to almost $2,500.00, and every member of Chillon Lodge is justly proud of their handsome Castle Hall.

The present officers of Chillon Lodge are: Jaiins L. Showers, Chancellor Commander; Bert McDonald, Vice Chancellor; William Stewart, Prelate; John G. King, Master at Arms; Joseph

H. Akers, Master of Exchequer; Lester Clark, Master of Finance; Charles J. Pettit, Master of Work; R. F. Bogar, Keeper of Records and Seal; J. M. Keith, Inner Guard; O. P. Lemasters, Outer Guard; Charles A. White, Organist; Joseph A. Wilson, Host. Board of Trustees: Robert Buxton, President; John M. Gray, Treasurer; Robert W. Harrison, Secretary.
